BURGLAR WAS BOLD

Cash Drawer in Burlington Passenger Station Rifled—Theft Occurred About Noon Hour—Suspect Is Arrested.

One of the most daring daylight burglaries that has occurred in Jacksonville for some time was perpetrated at the local Burlington passenger station Tuesday shortly after noon when some unknown party pried open the office door and cash drawer and secured $27.62. J. T. Kennedy of Galesburg, a lineman in the employ of the Burlington, who was in the office after the operator had gone to dinner, was placed under arrest Tuesday afternoon charged with the burglary.

Dwight Kastrup, operator and ticket clerk at the station, went to dinner shortly before 12 o'clock and as he had a heavy sale of tickets Tuesday morning, he decided to take some of the money to the bank. He counted out $600 and secured a draft for it while on his way home to dinner. When Operator Kastrup left the station Kennedy was engaged in repairing the block telephone. He said that shortly after noon he saw a man standing on the platform and as he needed a match to help in making a wire connection, he walked out and asked the man for one. The man gave him a small box of safety matches and as it was all he had, Kennedy sld that he gave the man a penny for it. The lineman stated that he worked on the telephone until 12:15, when he closed the window, locked the office door and went to dinner. When he left the office Kennedy said he noticed that the stranger from whom he purchased the matches was standing on the south end of the platform.

Operator Kastrup returned to the office about 12:55 and as soon as he entered the building he discovered the burglary. The office door had been pried open with a small tool, and from the indentation in the door it would seem that a chisel had been used. This same tool was inserted in the crack of the cash drawer, near the lock, prying open the drawer. The burglar had taken all of the cash with the exception of some pennys that had been wrapped. Upon finding that the money had been taken from the cash drawer Operator Kastrup immediately notified the police and Officer Eads, Acting Chief Estaque and Sergeant Sullivan were soon upon the scene. By the time they arrived at the station, which was shortly after 1 o'clock Lineman Kennedy had returned from dinner and when questioned by the officers he told a story substantially the same as the above. He gave the following description of the man whom he claimed to have seen on the station platform: 5 feet 9 inches tall, wore a yellow shirt, dark trousers and black hat and appeared as though he had been riding on a freight train. The officers worked around the vicinity of the station for some time, but could locate no one answering that description. The officers made a careful examination of the indentations in the door and cash drawer and upon examining the tools in Lineman Kennedy's satchel they found a wire splicer, the end of which fitted the indentations. Kennedy was then arrested on suspicion by Acting Chief Estaque and Officer Eads and taken to the station. When searched at the station the officers found only $16.23 on his person and the police were not able to shake Kennedy from his first story and he still maintains that he is innocent. Kennedy has been working on the local division of the Burlington only since Monday, having come here then to relieve the regular man who is away on his vacation.

A Chicago & Alton passenger train left the city about 12:45 and if Kennedy's story is true it is possible that the burglar left the city on that train.

In addition to the acting company, there are also several carpenters, electricians and property men, as well as wardrobe women. ENGINE TURNS TURTLE.

Engineer William Fitzgerald and Fireman J. M. Benninton of the Alton railroad had a miraculous escape near Minier, Ill., Monday. The train ran over a defective Buda derail. The trucks of the engine were derailed and ran over the ties for some distance. When the drivers reached the frog they followed the truck wheels to the ground, and almost in an instant the engine ran down the embankment and toppled over.

The crew had no chance to escape and went down with the engine. They scrambled out through the gangway of the right side of the cab and then jumped to safety. Fortunately there were no pipes broken else the men might have been scalded to death.

White Cordury skirts only at the Emporium.

SEVERELY BURNED.

Miss Mabel Maines of Bluffs Met Bad Accident From Gasoline Stove.

Miss Mabel Maines of Bluffs was seriously burned by the explosion of a gasoline stove, which occured Tuesday morning while she was ironing some clothes in the kitchen of her home. She had been using the stove to heat the irons and when it ran dry she turned out the burners and proceeded to poor oil into the tank. Several drops fell on the irons which she had left on the stove, and this is what caused the explosion, the flames flashing to the tank and the oil can which Miss Maines held in her hands. The young lady was badly burned about the arms and neck and on the upper part of the body. Her face, however, was but slightly scorched.

At the same time a bad fire was narrowly adverted. The flames before they could be extinguished burned all the clothing in the ironing and spread to the walls and ceiling or the room. Neighbors carried buckets of water and thrdew them on the walls thus extinguishing the fire.

Miss Maines is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Maines. Her inuries, it is thought will not prove fatal.

DISMISSED CASE

Hardin Moore Is Freed Relative to Bigamy Charge, but Is Re-Arrested on a Statutory Charge and Is Still in Jail.

Pittsfield, Ill., Aug. 15.—The preliminary examination of Hardin Moore, charged with bigamy, was held Monday afternoon before Justice of the Peace S. P. Rupert. It developed that though the prisoner had been granted a license to marry Cora Lovell of Milton the ceremony had not been performed and the state's attorney therefore dismissed the case. At the moment the case was dismissed Sheriff D. F. Allen served another warrant upon the prisoner, charging him with statutory offenses. The prisoner was arrested several days ago at the instigation of his wife's father of Jacksonville. The prisoner was again lodged in the county jail upon the new charge.

CORPSE IS FOUND

Body of William F. Magill, a Printer From Winchester, Is Found Dead on the Banks of the Sni Three Miles From Hull, Ill.

William F. Magill, a printer and a member of the International Typographical union, was found dead on the banks of the Sni, three miles northwest of Hull, Pike county, Monday afternoon. An inquest was held and a verdict was returned finding that he had come to his death from some cause unknown to the jury.

Magill was about 35 years of age and had been working at Winchester, Scott county, at his trade. He arrived at Hull Saturday and applied for a job at office of the Enterprise newspaper. There was nothing doing and re remained in town until afternoon, when he started away. He told a Hull citizen that he had been on a spree for eight or ten days and was in no condition to work, appearing to be in a dazed condition while in the village.

The point where the corpse was found is half a mile from the railroad track, os that for once the railroad cannot be blamed for the death. Magill was last seen alive, so far as has been learned, Saturday morning, when he applied for something to eat a farm house at no great distance from where the body was found.

Some men who examined the body though they detected blood on the face and this fact gave rise to the theory that he might have met with foul play. Some of the citizens are of the opinion that he was overcome by the heat. The body was found with the face downward.

An effort will be made by the Pike county officials to locate members of the dead man's family or relatives. The remains were interred at Hull.

TEAM RAN AWAY.

Watermelons Were Scatterd on North Main Street When Team Became Frightened.

A team hitched to a wagon of watermelons and driven by John White of Arenzville, became frightened on North Main street Tuesday morning and ran away, destroying all but two dozen of the melons and demolishing the wagon.

Mr. White had driven to the Henderson grocery store and it is thought that the horses were frightened by the street car. They ran into a telephone pole throwing the driver out, splintering the wagon and scattered 76 watermelons all over the street. Mr. White suffered some painful bruises and went to the office of Dr. Black where he received the necessary medical attention. He saved two dozen of the melons and a neighbor took him home in his rig.

DEATH RECORD

Hart.

Harry Hart died at 10 o'clock Monday morning at his home in Waverly after an illness of more than two years' duration. Mr. Hart was about 30 years of age and for the past three years had been carrier on rural route No. 2 out of Waverly, except when sickness detained him. He had recently been advised by his physician to go west for the purpose of benefitting his health and had made all arrangements to start with his family on this journey when he was suddenly taken with a severe spell and gradually grew weaker until the end came.

Mr. Hart was a member of the Baptist church at Waverly and was a man of fine Christian character. He is survived by his wife and two children; also by five brothers, John of this city, Arthur of Hillsboro, Newton of Butler, Daniel and Grover of Waverly, and two sisters, Mattie and Lela of Waverly, and by his father, Alex Hart. Mrs. Ernest Camm of this city is a sister-in-law and Alex Campbell is a cousin of the deceased.

Funeral services will be held at the Baptist church in Waverly this morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be in East cemetery at Waverly.

FUNERALS

Christison.

Funeral services of J. Christison, a well known resident of Winchester, were conducted from his late residence Monday morning at 10 o'clock, Elder John H. Coates officiating. Interment was made in Winchester cemetery.

Mr. Christison is survived by his wife, two brothers, Charles and Abner, two half-brothers, Joseph and Harry, and one sister, Mrs. Jane Blair, all of Scott county.

Melton.

The funeral of George Melton was held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning from the Chrisman homestead, two miles east of Merritt, in charge of Rev. D. J. Baird of Chapin. The singing was by a quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Al Morris, Mrs. J. A. Obeymeyer and Norman Campbell. The many beautiful flowers were cared for by Mrs. George Hogan and Mrs. Norman Campbell.

Interment was in the Kincaid cemetery and the bearers were Perry Bump, John Berry, Felix Moore, Wirt Morris, William Hitt and George Hardwick.

Maxwell.

Impressive funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock for Mrs. Richard E. Maxwell of New Berlin, in charge of Rev. Arthur F. Ewert of Bloomington. For some time Mrs. Maxwell had realized that she could not live long and two weeks ago planned her funeral. Everything was carried out just as she had directed.

Mrs. W. P. Duncan of this city was accompanist for Prof. Frank Drake of Springfield who opened the services by singing most beautfully "Rock of Ages," this was followed with prayer by Rev. Mr. Ewert. After another solo by Prof. Drake, "Some Day We'll Understand," Mr. Ewert read "The Picture," by Phoebe Cary, one of Mrs. Maxwell's favorite poems, the minister also read her favorite passage of scripture, the 14th chapter of St. John. This was followed by another solo, "Nearer, My God, to Thee." There was no sermon and during the entire service Mrs. Duncan played old familiar hymns fitting the music to the part of the program being given. After the closing prayer at the house the cortege moved to the New Berlin cemetery. It was one of the largest processions ever seen in that community. The service at the grave was very simple and aside from the committal service as the casket was being lowered into the grave Mrs. Tunison and Arthur Coulter sang one verse of "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

The flowers were beautiful, one large pillow being enscribed with the word "Mother." There were also six special floral sprays and numerous cut flowers.

The following were the bearers: Messrs. William Coulter, Jacksonville; Arthur and Earl Coulter of New Berlin; Dr. Lee Fulton of Alexander; Dr. J. W. Robinson of New Berlin; Clarence Park Laomi.

TALK ABOUT OIL.

The work of drilling was commenced on the Dunlap farm Tuesday and it is expected that both a day force and a night force will be used to complete the task.

A new devise for taking water out of the wells has been received and will be taken over to the Scott Green farm, where the company sank one of their first wells. The pumps are being worked every day at the Davies well and it is understood tht oil is being taken daily from the Mahon well.

There has been much discussion of late among the farmers about the benefits of oil on the roads and all agree that if oil is not found in large enough quantities or refining purposes that it can be utilized on the country roads. In several sections of the state the oil roads have gained much favor and the little track south of the city seems to give good satisfaction.

The last issue o the Petersburg Observer has the following to say:

"Each succeeding week of wear of the oiled streets helps to confirm the good opinion of the utility of crude oil in road making. We have gone through the big circus day and chautauqua without any dust on our principal streets. Besides we have had three big rains and the most used portion of the oil street shows very little effect of use immediately after the rain. This is the most beneficial result to be gained from oiled roads, especially in the country. If the road is well graded and oiled it will shed rain and thus do away with both the mud and the dust.

After a recent heavy rain a rig could have been driven upon the oiled portion of our street with less liability of being soiled than would have come with driving over a freshly sprinkled street.

BADLY INJURED

Herbert Lynch Met With Severe Accident at Louisiana, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lynch of Anna street, received a telegram Tuesday morning announcing that their son, Herbert Lynch had been seriously injured Tuesday morning about 5 o'clock near Louisana, Mo., while riding on the top of the Chicago & Alton Kansas City Flyer.

This train leaves this city at 3:31 a. m. and it is said that Lynch, in company with a number of other colored boys got on top of one of the coaches to go to Bowling Green, Mo., to attend a fair. Just as the train was pulling onto the bridge to cross the river, the young man raised his head, presumably to see where they were, when one of the cross bars at the top of the bridge struck him, inflicting a very serious wound. One of the boys who was near grabbed Lynch just as he was struck and kept him from falling to the trestle, which would probably have killed him instantly.

When the train had crossed the river into Louisana, the boys got the injured lad off the train and called a doctor, who after giving the necessary attention said that recovery was doubtful.

The young man was quite popular among his friends in this city, who will hope for a speedy recovery.

A WEEK OF DENIAL

Suffragists in New York Will Cut Out tPleasures To Aid California Sisters.

New York, Aug. 15.—The week of self-denial which the women suffragists of this city have volutarily imposed upon themselves in an effort to aid the women of California who need funds to carry on the campaign for women's rights, with a view of carrying the suffrage proposition at the election to be held in that state October 10, began to day in all seriousness. To celebrate the opening of this period of self-denial the suffragists of Greater New York gathered at Clason Point this forenoon and partook of a luncheon, the menu of which included hard-tack and other primitive and inexpensive articles of food which many of the women did not even know by name.

The luncheon has been arranged by leaders of the suffrage movement in this city to launch the self-denial movement in an appropriate manner and to give the suffrage advocates a foretaste of the "simple life" to which they committed themselves for the period of a week. The undeniably plain menu of the luncheon had an exhilarating effect upon the suffragists and with every address the enthusiasm increased.

It is not alone by fasting, however, that the New York women devoted to the suffrage cause except to help their sisters in the far west. Many hundreds of letters have been received by women suffragists of prominence, in which the writers women of every rank and station of society, pledged themselves to deeds of self-denial. Some of the poorest enthusiasts, mostly working girls, promised to cut down their luncheon allowance and deny themselves to luxury of riding home in a street car, to contribute to the California campaign fund. Others pledged themselves to forego soda water, candy and ice cream for a whole week, still to mend their old stockings, instead of purchasing new ones. Of course the money thus saved, is to be contributed to the war fund. The range of sacrifices which the women suffragists have voluntarily imposed upon themselves is quite extensive and varied in accordance with the social and financial conditions of the women.

Many of the wealthy or comparatively wealthy suffragists have decided to deny themselves some pleasure, from an expensive book to a week-end party or a trip to Europe and some business women or professional women have pledged themselves to contribute a certain percentage of their income or salary for the week. It is expected that by the co-operation of the supporters of women's suffrage in this city and by the faithful fulfillment of their pledges of self-denial a large sum of money will be raised and it is hoped that the sum thus realized will be of material aid to the women of California in their fight for woman's suffrage.

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Erie, Pa.—"I suffered for five years from female troubles and at last was almost helpless. I went to three doctors and they did me no good, so my sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and when I had taken only two bottles I could see a big change, so I took six bottles and I am now strong and well again. I don't know how to express my thanks for the good it has done me and I hope all suffering women will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It was worth its weight in gold."—Mrs. J. P. ENDLICH, R. F. D. No. 7, Erie, Pa.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardui.

Meetze, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well.

One day, I decided to try some Cardui. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardui will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardui at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness.

It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy.

Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardui. Suppose you try it.

It may be just the medicine you need.

VETOED BY TAFT

PRESIDENT DOES NOT APPROVE RESOLUTION ADMITTING ARIZONA AND NEW MEXICO.

In Special Message to Congress Gives Reason for His Action—Looks Upon Judicial Recall Feature as Dangerous and Pernicious.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 15.—President Taft, in a special message to the house of representatives, to day vetoed the joint resolution providing for the admission of New Mexico and Arizona to statehood. His reason for exercising the executive power of veto was based on his thorough disapproval of the recall of judges clause in the Arizona constitution. The fact that New Mexico's statehood was bound up with that of Arizona meted out to her the same fate, and neither territory can come into the union at this time unless friends of the joint resolution in congress can muster the two-thirds vote necessary to pass the resolution over the president's veto. This may be attempted.

Did Not Spare Words.

The president did not spare words in condemning the recall feature of the Arizona constitution which, he said, would compel judges to make their decision "under legalized terrorism. The recall provision would operate against all elective officers of Arizona, including both county and state judges. When 25 per cent of the voters of the previous election petitioned for a special election to remove an official such an election would be compulsory.

"This provision of the Arizona constitution," the president says, "in its application to county and state judges seems to me so pernicious in its effect so destructive of independence in the judiciary, so likely to subject the rights of the individual to the possible tyranny of a popular majority, and, therefore, to be so injurious to the cause of free government I must disapprove a constitution containing it."

Discussed Court Functions.

Much of the message was devoted to a discussion of the functions of the courts under the constitution. The president dwelt at considerable length on the necessity for freeing the judiciary as much as possible from politics or popular influences. And, referring to the recall provision, he asked:

"Could there be a system more ingeniously devised to subject judges to momentary gusts of popular passion than this?"

The message was received with great interest by the house, largely because of the president's long association with the judiciary. The document in part is as follows:

Opposed New Mexico Constitution.

"I return herewith, without my approval, house joint resolution, No. 14, "to admit the territories of New Mexico and Arizona as states into the union on an equal footing with the original states."

Congress, by an enabling act approved June 20, 1910, provided for the calling of a constitutional convention in each of these territories, the submission of the constitution proposed by the convention to the electors of the territory, the approval of the constitution by the president and congress, the proclamation of the fact by the president and the election of state officers. Both in Arizona and New Mexico, conventions have been held, constitutions adopted and ratified by the people and submitted to the president and congress. I have approved the constitution of New Mexico, and so did the house of representatives of the sixty-first congress. The senate, however, failed to take action upon it. I have not approved the Arizona constitution, nor have the two houses of congress, except as they have done so by the joint resolution under consideration. The resolution admits both territories to statehood with their constitutions, on condition that at the time of the election of state officers, New Mexico shall submit to its electors an amendment to its new constitution alternating and modifying its provision for future amendments, and on the further condition that Arizona shall submit to its electors, at the time of the election of its state officers, a proposed amendment to its constitution by which judicial officers shall be exception from the section permitting a recall of all elective officers.

The Judicial Recall.

If I sign this joint resolution, I do not se how I can escape responsibility for the judicial recall of the Arizona constitution. The joint resolution admits Arizona with the judicial recall, but requires the submission of the question of its wisdom to the voters. In other words, the resolution approves the admission of Arizona with the judicial recall, unless the voters themselves repudiate it. Under the Arizona constitution all elective officers, and this includes county and state judges, six months after their election, are subject to the recall. It is initiated by a petition signed by elections equal to 25 per cent of the total number of votes cast for all the candidates for the office at the previous general election. Within five days after the petition is filed the officer may resign. Whether he does or not, an election ensues in which his name, if he does not resign, is placed on the ballot with that of all other candidates. The petitioners may print on the official ballot 200 words showing their reasons for recalling the officer, and he is permitted to make defense in the same place in 200 words. If the incumbent receives the highest number of the votes, he continues in his office; if not, he is removed from office and is succeeded by the candidate who does receive the highest number.

Pernicious in Effect.

This provision of the Arizona constitution, in its application to county and state judges, seems to be pernicious in its effect, so destructive of independence in the judiciary, so likely to subject the rights of the individual to the possible tyranny of a popular majority and, therefore, to be so injurious to the cause of free government that I must disapprove a constitution containing it. I am not now engaged in performing the office given me in the enabling act already referred to, approved June 20, 1910, which was that of approving the constitutions ratified by the people of the territories. It may be argued from the text of that act that in giving or withholding the approval under the act, my only duty is to examine the proposed constitution, and if I find nothing in it inconsistent with the federal constitution, the principles of the declaration of independence, or the enabling act, to register my approval. But now I am discharging my constitutional function in respect to the enactment of laws, and my discretion is equal to that of the houses of congress. I must therefore withhold my approval from this resolution if in fact I do not approve it as a matter of governmental policy. Of course, a mere difference of opinion as to the wisdom of details in a state constitution ought not to lead me to set up my opinion against that of the people of the territory. It is to be their government, and while the power of congress to withhold or grant statehood is absolute, the people about to constitute a state should generally know better the kind of government and constitution suited to their needs than congress or the executive. But when such a constitution contains something so destructive of free government as the judicial recall it should be disapproved.

Government for All.

A government is for the benefit of all the people. We believe that this benefit is best accomplished by popular government, because in the long run each class of individuals is apt to secure better provision for themselves through their own voice in government than through the altruistic interest of others, however intelligent or philanthropic. The wisdom of ages has taught that no government can exist except in accordance with laws and unless the people under it either obey the laws voluntarily or are made to obey them.

Again judicial recall is advocated on the ground that it will bring the judges more into sympathy with the popular will and the progress of ideas among the people. It is said that now judges are out of touch with governmental agencies in the interest and for the benefit of the people. The righteous and just course for a judge to pursue is ordinarily fixed by statue or clear principles of law, and the cases in which his judgment may be affected by his political, economic, or social views are infrequent. But even in such cases, judges are not removed from the people's influence. Surround the judiciary with all the safeguards possible, create judges by appointment made their terms for life, forbid diminution of salary during their term and still it is impossible to prevent the influence of popular opinion from coloring judgments in the long run. Judges are men, intelligent, sympathetic men, patriotic men and in those fields of the law in which the personal equation unavoidable plays a part, there will be found a response to sober popular opinion as it changes to meet the exigency of social, political, and economic changes. Indeed this should be so. Individual instances of hide-bound and retrograde conservatism on the part of courts in decisions which turn on the individual economic or sociological views of the judges may be pointed out; but they are not many, and do not call for radical action, in treating of courts we are dealing with a human machine, liable like all the inventions of man to err; but we are dealing with a human institution that likens itself to a divine institution because it seeks and preserves justice. It has been the cornerstone of our gloriously free government in which the rights of the individual and of the minority have been preserved, while governmental action of the majority has lost nothing of beneficent progress, efficacy, and directness. This balance was planned in the constitution by it framers and has been maintained by our independent judiciary.

System Full of Danger.

It is said the recall will be rarely used. If so, it will be rarely needed. Then why adopt a system so full of danger; but it is a mistake to suppose that such a powerful lever for influencing judicial decision and such an opportunity for vengeance because of adverse ones will be allowed to remain unused.

But it is said that the people of Arizona are to become an independent state when created, and even if we strike out judicial recall now, they can incorpoporate it in their constitution after statehood.

To this I would answer that in dealing with the courts, which are the conerstone of good government and which not only the voters, but the non-voters and non-residents, have a deep interests as a security for their rights of life, liberty, and property, no matter what the future action of the state may be, it is necessary for the authority which is primarily responsible for its creation to assert in no doubtful tones the necessity for an independent and untrammeled judiciary.

Grain Letter.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Wheat—After a moderate show of strength, wheat developed a very weak tone and closed heavy at the low point of the day. Liquidation was quite extensive and a great many stop loss orders were caught on the break. Business abroad is affected by the dock laborers' strike in England, while all continental markets were celebrating a holiday. It is reported that a sale of 700,000 bushels of wheat was made from this market late yesterday, but details are not forthcoming and in all probability this is simply an operation to move the wheat to some point for cheaper storage, leaving the hedges to rest on the Chicago market. What few complaints came from spring wheat sections were pushed into the back ground. Spring wheat, however, is not out of danger and such low temperatures as may appear across the border will suggest frost damage, as the crop is late in many places. It should not be forgotten that around the present level considerable export business developed and with the re-opening of foreign markets considerable wheat may be taken, which would undoubtedly cause another good rally. We are on a world basis and we feel that purchases on such sharp breaks will probably result profitably.

Corn—Corn is acting heavy and was disposed to break with wheat. constant support by leading local speculators prevented a break and caused a considerable show of strength. Country offerings continue disappointing and the idea is rapidly gaining ground that old corn tributary to Chicago has been pretty well marketed. Weather conditions are excellent for the new crop. With crop conditions good, it will be difficult to advance and maintain the distant deliveries. We look for a scalping market and while believing in the value of corn we feel that sales of May and December on bulges will be profitable for scalps.

Oats—Oats are influenced mainly by the action of wheat and corn. There is, however, a noticeable improvement in the investment demand. We feel that oats have a great deal of merit and that later in the year will sell at a higher level.

Provisions—Lower on selling hedged by stock yards speculators and western packers. Local traders are showing a disposition to buy lard on the soft spots.

Sample markets—Wheat relatively higher. Offerings much smaller. Good demand for storage. No. 2 red, 1 to 1½ cent under September; No. 2 hard, ½ to 2 cents under September. Corn steady to ½c lower. Opened easier, but firmed up later with futures. Offerings only fair. Last arrivals were on sales to arrive. Demand good. Oats steady. Offerings moderate. Demand good.

IN HONOR OF BIRTHDAY.

The 73rd birthday of Mr. William DeVore, who resides at 1536 South Main street occured on Sunday and the event was celebrated Monday evening by a sumptuous supper which was served on the lawn. Nineteen sat down to the tables, including Mr. and Mrs. DeVore the children and grandchildren. A large cake adorned the center of the table. It contained 73 lighted candles, one for each year of Mr. De Vore's life.

Mr. De Vore was born in Morgan county August 13, 1838 and has always resided in the southeast part of the county excepting for the past six years when he has been living in Jacksonville. Mr. De Vore has not enjoyed the best of health the past few months and he has only recently come from Passavant hospital where he underwent a serious operation. It was a time of great rejoicing Monday evening and the evening was spent in playing games and with music. Mr. De Vore received a number of presents and the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

BECKER THE MAN

HEALTHY MOTHERS

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

Destroy the cause, you remove the effect.
